11.05 Transfer to Full Time Employment

All seniority, vacation and other credits obtained under this Collective Agreement will be retained and transferred with the Employee when they are reclassified from full-time employment to part-time employment and from part-time employment to full-time employment.

ARTICLE 12 - HOURS OF WORK AND WORK SCHEDULES

12.01 This Article defines the normal hours of work and is not a guarantee of work per day or per week or a guarantee of days of work per week.

12.02 Regular Daily Hours

As per Article 12.01, for an Employee working the standard scheduled shift, regular daily hours of work will be seven and a half (7½) hours per day, exclusive of meal periods.

12.03 The work period will consist of seventy-five (75) hours in any bi-weekly period.

12.04 This Article will not preclude the implementation of modified daily or bi-weekly hours of work by mutual agreement between the Union and the Employer.

12.05 Meal Period

Employees working a shift of more than five (5) hours will receive a thirty (30) minute unpaid period scheduled by the Employer.

12.06 Rest Breaks

Employees working a minimum of seven and a half (7½) hour shift will receive two (2) fifteen (15) minute paid rest breaks to be scheduled by the Employer.

Employees working less than a seven and a half (7½) hour shift will receive one (1) fifteen (15) minute paid rest break to be scheduled by the Employer.

12.07 Commitment to Part-Time Employees

Part-time Employees who are covered by this Collective Agreement may be requested by the Employer to work more than regularly scheduled hours, for example, during the summer months, at Christmas/New year period, and at least on alternate paid holidays, and to replace an Employee who is absent for a scheduled shift, if requested at any of these times. It is understood that the Employer will recognize the integrity of the part-time position and will not make unreasonable requests for additional work by part-time Employees.

12.08 Shift Schedules

The shift schedules will be posted on the notice board, at least two (2) weeks prior to the effective date of the schedule. When a change is made in the shift schedule of a full-time or part-time Employee by the Employer other than those changes contemplated by Articles 12.04 and 12.10 of this Collective Agreement, the Employee will be informed and when the change is made with less than three (3) calendar days' notice the Employee will be paid at time and one-half times (1½x) their regular rate of pay for the first shift of the changed shift schedule.

12.09 Requests for specific days off will be submitted in writing or electronically to the department Manager or designate one (1) week prior to the posting. Where possible, statutory holidays will be scheduled in conjunction with the Employee's regular scheduled weekends.

12.10 Requests to exchange shifts within posted work schedules must be submitted in writing and/or electronically and co-signed by the Employee willing to exchange days off or workings shifts and are subject to the discretion of the Employer. In any event, it is understood that such change initiated by the Employee and approved by the Employer will not result in overtime compensation or payment, or any other claims on the Employer by an Employee under the terms of this Agreement.

12.11 An Employee may be required to work for more than five (5) consecutive days to provide for days off on a consecutive rotation basis of four (4) days off bi-weekly and will be taken on such days as will be specified by the Employer. The Employer will arrange shift schedules such that an Employee is not scheduled to work for more than six (6) consecutive days. The Employer may switch scheduled days off to accommodate an emergency situation provided the switch is mutually agreed with the Employees affected and any such change will be submitted to the Union.

12.12 The shift commencing at or about midnight will be considered the first shift of each working day. A shift will be entirely within the calendar day in which the majority of hours fall regardless of what calendar day any part of such shift was actually worked.

12.13 There will be no split shifts.

12.14 At least fifteen (15) hours' time off will be scheduled between shifts or changeover of shifts for regular Employees. An Employee, who is scheduled to work within fifteen (15) hours after a scheduled shift or a changeover of shifts, will receive overtime rates of pay for all hours worked within such fifteen (15) hour period. A shorter period of time between shifts or changeover of shifts may be scheduled by mutual consent between the Employer, the Union and the Employees.

At least eight (8) hours' time off will be provided to a Casual Employee between shifts or changeover of shifts. A Casual Employee who works within eight (8) hours of a completed shift will receive overtime rates of pay for all hours worked within the eight (8) hour period.

12.15 The Employer will arrange shifts so that Saturdays and Sundays (weekends) off are distributed as equally as possible.

12.16 Part-time Employees who wish to be considered for work over and above their scheduled hours of work will notify their supervisor, in writing, as to their availability for additional hours of work. Part-time Employees will, in order of seniority, have preference for additional work, provided that care and efficiency are not compromised. When a part-time Employee designates availability for additional hours, with suitable advance written notice, the Employee's schedule will not be considered to have changed and Articles 13.01, 13.07 and 13.08 do not apply.

Provided that care and efficiency are not compromised, the additional hours of work will be offered by the Employer, in order of seniority, to part-time Employees who have requested additional hours and who are qualified and available to meet temporary operational requirements.

If no Part-time Employees accept the available additional hours, the additional hours will be offered to Casual Employees, who have stated their availability and who are qualified and available to meet temporary operational requirements, based on their seniority and pursuant to Article 11.04.

When a part-time Employee accepts additional hours of work and fails to provide seventy-two (72) hours' notice of their inability to honour the commitment or does not report to duty more than three (3) times within a six (6) month period, without sufficient cause, the Employee's name may be removed from the call-in list for three (3) months.

In the event of additional work under this Article the Part-time Employee's schedule will not be considered to have changed and Articles 12.01, 12.08, 12.14 and 13.07 will not apply, and the basic rate of pay will prevail for additional work assigned to part-time Employees beyond their scheduled hours, provided:

(a) the Employee accepts the assignment;

(b) the hours of work do not exceed seven and one-half (7½) hours per day;

(c) the hours worked do not exceed seventy-five (75) hours over a period of fourteen (14) calendar days;

12.17 A Casual Employee will not be required to work for more than six (6) consecutive days.

12.18 Casual Employees

Failure to work at least one (1) weekend shift, if offered by the Employer, in a calendar month may result in removal of the Casual Employee's name from the casual call-in roster. A Casual Employee will be terminated in the event the Employee declines to work at least two (2) shifts per month, as offered by the Employer unless excused by the Employer.

ARTICLE 13 - OVERTIME

13.01 Overtime Defined

Overtime will be paid for all hours worked over seven and one half (7½) hours in a shift or seventy-five (75) hours bi-weekly or more than six (6) consecutive days, at the rate of time and one-half the Employee's regular rate of pay provided that all such overtime is authorized by the Manager or designate.

13.02 Part-Time Employees

Part-time Employees who are scheduled to work less than seventy-five (75) hours in a bi-weekly pay period will qualify for overtime after first completing seventy-five (75) hours of work in the scheduled bi-weekly work period or after completing seven and a half (7½) hours of work in the standard seven and a half (7½) hour shift, provided that all such overtime is authorized by the Manager or designate.

13.03 Overtime Rates of Pay

Overtime rates of pay are based on the Employee's basic rate of pay, excluding hourly shift premiums.

13.04 No Layoff to Compensate for Overtime

An Employee will not be required to be laid off during regular hours to equalize any overtime worked. Time off in lieu of overtime rate by mutual consent between the Employee and the Employer, may be arranged.

13.05 An Employee who is absent on paid time during their scheduled work week because of sickness, bereavement, holidays or vacation will, for the purpose of computing overtime pay, be considered as if they had worked during their regular hours during such absence.

13.06 Sharing of Overtime

Overtime will be voluntary except that the Employer will have the right to order overtime should no volunteers be available. Overtime and callback time will be divided as equally as possible among Employees normally doing the work who are willing and qualified to perform the available work.

13.07 Callback Guarantee

If an Employee is called back to work within fifteen (15) hours after working their regular shift, they will receive overtime rates of pay for all hours worked during the callback.

13.08 Overtime Work on Scheduled Day Off

Employees required to work by the Employer on their scheduled days off will be paid for the first day off at the rate of time and one-half (1½x) and the second and subsequent days off at double time (2x) unless the Employee is given at least seven (7) calendar days' notice of the change of shift schedule.

13.09 Time Off in Lieu of Overtime

Where mutually agreed by the Employer and the Employee, the Employee may receive time off in lieu of overtime. Such time off will be the equivalent of the actual time worked, adjusted by the applicable overtime rate and taken at a time mutually agreed by the Employer and the Employee. In no case will time off in lieu of overtime be taken later than sixty (60) days from the date the overtime was worked.

13.10 An Employee who works more than three and a half (3½) hours of overtime past their regularly scheduled shift will be provided a meal ticket, at no cost to the Employee, to be used within that overtime shift or the next scheduled shift if the kitchen isn't open.

ARTICLE 14 - JOB POSTING, PROMOTIONS, TRANSFERS, VACANCIES

14.01 A vacancy of a bargaining unit position will be posted within three (3) days and remain posted for five (5) working days (i.e. exclusive of Saturday, Sunday, and Paid Holidays). The posting will indicate the date of the posting, the closing date for applications, the department in which the vacancy is to be filled and the classification, qualifications, hours of work and rate of pay for the posted position.

14.02 If no internal applications are received by completion of the posting period the Employer may fill the vacancy at its discretion.

14.03 Until the vacancy is filled, the Employer may fill the vacancy at its discretion on a temporary basis.

14.04 Both parties recognize:

(a) the principle of promotion within the service of the Employer

(b) that job opportunity should increase in proportion to seniority.

Therefore, in a case where bargaining unit Employees apply for a posted position, who possess the required qualification and satisfactory record of performance, the Employer will select the Employee with the greatest seniority.

An Employee who is successful in a job posting will not be considered for the same position within six (6) months of the successful posting unless the posting is for a higher FTE or shift hours of work.

14.05 The Employer, if requested by the Employee, will discuss with the unsuccessful applicant ways in which they can improve their qualifications for future postings.

14.06 Within three (3) days of the appointment to a vacant position, the name of the successful applicant and the date the appointment takes effect will be posted. The Site Vice President will be notified of all hires, transfers, appointments, and terminations of employment.

14.07 Trial Period for Transfers, Promotions and Change of Classification within the Bargaining Unit

Failing approval by the Employer, the Employer may schedule the lieu day or pay the additional day's pay.

19.11 Paid Holidays

Nothing in this Article will prevent the Employee and the Employer from agreeing to any combination of time and one-half, plus a day off or a day's pay and a day and one-half for full-time Employees who work on any of the paid holidays set out in Article 19.01.
